I intend to appeal for a new trial next Saturday ofternoon, and I am confident that It will geg ranted."

Yesterday morning was taken up with giving the final testimony and at about Il o'clock Rufus Conella was permitted by the court to deliver an argument on his own behalf as defendant to the jury. His plea consumed ther emainder of the morning and two hours of the afternoon. Mr. Connella's appeal to the jury was full of touching remarks, and he craved mercy of the jury for the sake of his wife who is an invalid and his chil-
